

Co-Ops Ask: Bring CIV To Country

The Wisconsin Electric Co-operative Assn. today presented a proposal to the Assembly State Affairs Committee...

Walter Seaberg, WECA management director, said the committee that rural Wisconsin...

Under the WECA-offered amendments, cable communications would be declared a public utility and placed under the supervision of the Public Service Commission...

Goodbye, Summer This could be the last case of the Tenney Park area - (staff photo by Bob Johnson)

Arrest State Aide Trying To Mediate Migrant Row

By JOHN BUCKLE (The Capital Times Staff) CIVILIAN - The state's chief migrant services officer...

A spokesman for the Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations today said "he is trying to mediate a dispute between workers and the company..."

Students and Cops: Things Are Different

Students still may not love University of Wisconsin campus police, but their relationship is far better than it was three or four years ago...

Police and the end of the era of the 1960s are the beginning of the age of maturity in the change in the police-student relationship...

County Nutrition Program Ready To Pick Sites

The Dane County Project Council of the National Nutrition Program for the elderly...

At this morning's meeting, members of the project council and participants in a project council for the elderly...

THE CAPITAL TIMES CITY News

MADISON, WIS., Friday, Sept. 14, 1973

Prof. Neess Predicts: 'Nuclear Plant Would Dry Up Rock River'

By HERBARD CONROVE (The Capital Times Staff) FT. ATKINSON - A University of Wisconsin Nuclear Engineering Department...

Neess said his figures show that the evaporation of water used by the plant would be approximately equal to the total flow of the Rock River into Lake Koshong...

City Disposal Firm Bugged, Expert Says

By IRVIN KREISMAN (The Capital Times Staff) A witness called an attorney...

The attorney general's office resorted to wire tapping to gain evidence illegally...

Neess: Still on 'Kissing, For Chile Probe'

By JOHN BUCKLE (The Capital Times Staff) MADISON - A spokesman for the University of Wisconsin Nuclear Engineering Department...

Neess said he has not yet seen anything on the matter and is still on "kissing, for Chile probe"

Native American Center Won't Close; Seeks Allies

By DIANE SHERMAN (The Capital Times Staff) WENK SHEKEL'S Native American center...

The center has received numerous letters of support from its constituents and individuals in the Madison community...

Bishop O'Donnell In Hospital for Check-Up Tests

By JOHN BUCKLE (The Capital Times Staff) Bishop O'Donnell, bishop of the Madison Catholic Diocese...

The bishop's illness is not serious, but he is being kept in the hospital for a check-up and a series of tests...

Shanna-Na Profits are Released

Proceeds from Wednesday's sale of Shanna-Na are to be used for the benefit of the Dane County Children's Home...

The Dane County Children's Home is a non-profit organization that provides care for children in need...

Earl Begins Election Campaign

The candidacy of Assembly Majority Leader Anthony Earl (D-Madison) for state attorney general...

Earl was first elected to the Assembly in 1969 to fill the unexpired term of Rep. David Ober...

Tenney Locks To Reopen

The City Parks Department has announced that the Tenney Park locks, closed for repairs since Aug. 11...

The locks will be open from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday...