G.F.J. reports:

Madison, Wis., Sunday , May 7th, 1911.

At 10:00 a.m. I instructed T.H.S. to shadow Duke and advise me where he was so that I could inform the client, as he desired to see Duke. We located Duke at his office. I telephoned to the client, but could not get him. We kept Duke under surveillance all day, but were unable to get the client on the 'phone. I went to the jail to see if he had called up, but he had not done so.

At 10:00 p.m. Duke retired.
